

BIOGRAPHY

Hugh Woodward, President and CEO, PMFORUM

Hugh Woodward is well qualified to address the strategic aspects of the project management profession as a former leader of the Project Management Institute, an accomplished speaker and educator, and an experienced practitioner.

Hugh has played a leadership role in PMI since 1993, serving two consecutive terms as Chair in 2000 and 2001, and almost six years as a member of PMI's Board of Directors. He was President of the Southwest Ohio Chapter from 1993 to 1995, and currently serves as a member of the PMI Educational Foundation's Board of Directors.

Hugh is the President and Managing Editor of PMFORUM.ORG, a popular on-line resource serving the global project management profession. Previously, he was a program manager for the Procter & Gamble Company, where he spent over 20 years leading teams focused on operational and process improvement in both manufacturing and business services.

Hugh has a Bachelor of Engineering from the University of Tasmania, a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from Lehigh University, and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Scranton. He was certified as a Project Management Professional in March 1992.

Hugh has a Bachelor of Engineering from the University of Tasmania, a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from Lehigh University, and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Scranton. He was certified as a Project Management Professional in March 1992.

NASA Project Management Conference